

I can talk about the most important parts of the book, including when and where the book is set .

I can explain what I feel about a character (whether I like them or not).

I can read new words by sounding them out.

My Reading Targets

I can spot different types of punctuation and can say how the writing has been set out.
, (in a list) " " ! ?

When I read out loud, I pause at full stops all the time.

I can find connectives when reading a text.

next then after meanwhile before during after a while

I can spot WOW words that the author has used.

I can find speech marks to show who is speaking.

I can show you where to find information about a character or a topic in non-fiction texts.

I can say what I like and don't like about my book and explain reasons why.