

I can predict what might happen and explain my prediction.

I can read aloud using punctuation, paragraphs, headings etc. to make the meaning clear to my audience.

I can discuss and explain what I have read and I can back up my ideas with an appropriate quote.

I can retell what I have read using proper sentences and good vocabulary.

Reading Targets

Year 5

I can read stories from a range of different fiction genres including adventure, thriller and historical.

I can read a non-fiction book and discuss how the information has been structured and presented.

I can prepare and deliver a book review to recommend a book to the class and explain why I enjoyed it.

I can point out ways in which the writer has added description and the effect that this has on the reader.